Question: I'm realizing/wondering _____ about how a school system serves students.

- 1. I wonder how to use "growth" as a measure for report card grades instead of benchmarks?
- 2. By participating in this learning committee, I'm realizing the thoughtfulness required in order to serve students.
- 3. How do schools help students who find the class lessons too easy?
- 4. I'm realizing/wondering that we need to determine how to mine the knowledge of diverse parents and students about how a school system serves diverse students.
- 5. How significant a single experience can be in serving students (positive or negative)
